

Meg Oliver

Experience

- Byrdcliffe Artists Colony, Woodstock Byrdcliffe Guild, Woodstock, NY May 2005 – present
Resident Director of Ceramics
Facilitate summer residents, facilitate faculty, teach continuing education classes, studio technician, organize fundraising events for the studio. Will curate a show in the Kleinert/James Gallery, Woodstock, NY, September 2006.
- Artist in Residence* May – August
2003, & May- October
Ceramics
2001
- Appalachian Trail June- November
1999,
Solo hiked 2163 miles along a footpath extending from GA to ME July 2000
- Hoorn-Ashby Gallery, New York, NY October 1996 -
Manager May 1999
Assisted the owner in all working aspects of the Gallery
- Rutgers Center for Innovative Print and Papermaking, New Brunswick, NJ Winter 1997
Intern
- Nantucket Historical Association, Nantucket, MA June- October
1996
Docent
Conducted informational tours of Nantucket's historical sites to visitors
- Hoorn-Ashby Gallery, Nantucket, MA June- October
1996
Sales Representative
Provided clients with information about the various artists and encouraged clients to invest in the work.
- Slide Library, Waterville, ME September 1994 -
Assistant Librarian May 1996
Researched, photographed, mounted, and cataloged slides for the Art Department and faculty.

Education

- New York State College of Ceramics, Alfred, NY BFA December 2004
Honors: Magna Cum Laude
Kiki Smith Scholarship to Haystack School of Arts and Crafts Summer 2003
- Colby College, Waterville, ME BA 1996
Major: Art with a concentration in Art History.
Honors: Cum Laude

Shows

- December 2004: Solo exhibit of ceramics at the Rhodes Gallery, Alfred, NY.
April 2003: Group exhibit entitled Green at the Turner Gallery, Alfred, NY.
December 2001: Group exhibit at the Little Bird Gallery, Tannersville, NY.
Summer 2000: Solo exhibit of woodcuts at The American Café, Phoenicia, NY.
August 1996: Group exhibit entitled Boat at the James Hunt Barker Galleries, Nantucket, MA.
April- May 1996: Juried group exhibit at the Colby College Art Museum, Waterville, ME.

Representation

- Hoorn-Ashby Gallery, Nantucket, MA
Fleur de Lis Gallery, Woodstock, NY
The Snowy Owl, Tannersville, NY

Crafts People, West Hurley, NY